RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On June 29, 2016, Luzelva Rojo (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine that she received on October 28, 2013. Petition at 2. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On October 3, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states that petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with SIRVA, and that it was caused in fact by the flu vaccine she received on October 28, 2013. Respondent further states that based on the record as it now stands, petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act. Id. at 6-7.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence before me, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
